REMINDER: You must become and remain a CPPA member in good standing. If you do not remain a CPPA member in good standing, your CPPA Legal Defense Fund coverage will be terminated.

PRIVACY NOTICE

We take great care to properly handle information provided by you. This Notice describes how we handle personal information and our commitment to protecting your privacy. We follow strict security standards and procedures to help prevent unauthorized access to personal information. Only properly authorized employees may access information we collect from or about you. We apply standards for protecting personal information to all our customer interactions, including those conducted via the Internet. We may collect information about you from the following sources:

- a. Information we obtain during the application process. You may be asked to provide financial and identifying information as part of the application process, such as names, addresses, telephone numbers and social security numbers as well as assets and income, checking and credit card information. Information may also be requested to include such things as credit reports and similar information about your credit standing or characteristics obtained from credit bureaus and other sources outside of CPPA or CPPA's insurer.
- b. Information about transactions and experience. We develop and retain information based on our transactions and experience with you, such as individual claim and case history, payment history, and banking history as applicable.
- c. Information we obtain from Internet technology. This includes information you provide via online forms you complete and information we receive when you visit our website.

+++++

We may share the information we collect about current and former customers with our agents and/or affiliates (plan attorneys, underwriters, secondary insurers, company attorneys) who will not use shared information for a purpose other than to comply with your contract with CPPA for legal services. We strive to keep our records accurate and will make appropriate corrections when you notify us. Please let us know if there is incorrect information in any statements or other communications that you receive from us.
